KITCHIN READY TO MEET OPPONENTS

North Carolina Candidate for Governor Stands on His Record.

DENIES THAT HE IS UNSAFE

Sends Forth Challenge to Others in Race to Meet Him on Stump.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
RALEIGH, N. C., June 1.—In a lengthy interview given out here today, Congressman W. W. Kitchen, who is in the race for the Democratic nomination for Governor to succeed Governor R. B. Glenn, declares that he would be glad to canvass the State with any competitor who thinks he has failed in his congressional duty, or that he is or has been in any political combine, or that he is unsafe or hostile to business or that his trust and railroad record is contrary to the interests of the people, or that he is otherwise unsuitable for the office of Governor. He says he is constrained to make this challenge because he cannot undertake to notice all the charges that ignorance and malice may make against him, and believing that joint discussions contribute to a just understanding of differences and raising the intelligence of the people to refute slander and withstand all efforts to mislead.

Richardson says he succeeded in keeping the mob back until 8 o'clock, and was told the negro had been lynched. Without encountering resistance, the lynch mob had taken Johnson from the jail and hanged him to a tree.

Dandelion removes the cause of kidney trouble.

Guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drugs Act, June 30, 1906. Serial number 5517.

A healthy kidney is a filter. The blood goes in one end of the kidney full of poisonous and waste material. It comes out the other end perfectly pure. Like all filters, the kidneys get out of order. The trouble is only slight at first, but rapidly becomes dangerous if neglected, because the kidneys become choked with refuse, and the result is a leaking filter, full of holes and ulcers, with the natural consequence that the whole system becomes poisonous and the blood contaminated with uric acid. Dr. Edwards' Compound Dandelion Tablets act directly upon the kidneys and remove the cause of the trouble. In other words, they repair the leaking filter and make it clean and healthy. DEAD MAN CAME FROM ROANOKE

Polish Miner from That Town Burned to Death in Ohio.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CINCINNATI, OHIO, June 1.—It is now believed that the man who was partly incinerated in the Ryan soap factory boiler early yesterday morning was Joseph Portank, a Polish miner, of Roanoke, Va.

Father Rupert Baranski says that Portank crawled on his hands and knees into the St. Stanislaus Church last Wednesday. He made two confessions. That afternoon on entering he acted insanely. He has not been seen since. In the room he occupied was found a valise, such as is carried by immigrants. It was filled with peasant clothing. Among other things it contained a receipt for a money order sent from Roanoke, Va., to Old Constantine, Russia, by Joseph Portank to Lake Mills, and was for $6.18. It was dated April 24th. Father Baranski says the dead man's description and that of the clothes he wore in every detail coincide with that of Portank.

ANOTHER RAILWAY APPEALS TO COURT

Chesapeake and Western Resists Reduced Rate Order in Virginia.

INJUNCTION BY PRITCHARD

Corporation Commission Cited to Appear in Asheville June 27th.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., June 1.—The Chesapeake and Western Railway Company appeared before United States Circuit Judge Pritchard by counsel today and secured an injunction restraining the corporation commission from causing to be published the new Virginia law reducing passenger and freight rates. The bill of complaint is similar to those of other railway corporations which have secured temporary restraining orders relative to reduced passenger and freight rates in North Carolina and Virginia. The bill is made returnable before Judge Pritchard at Asheville, June 27th, when the commission of Virginia is cited to appear and show cause why an injunction pendente lite as prayed in the bill should not be issued. The determination of the Chesapeake and Western to fight the rate reduction brings the total number of railroads in North Carolina and Virginia that will contest in the courts lower freight and passenger rates to more than half a dozen.

LOCAL OPTION ELECTION.

Judge Holt Hears Petition of Drys in Staunton—Decide Matter July 12th.
STAUNTON, VA., June 1.—The petition of the drys came up for consideration in the Corporation Court this morning, and within less than half an hour Judge Henry W. Holt ordered a local option election to be held in Staunton on Friday, July 12, 1907. The liquor dealers made no objection whatever to the granting of the petition, they being conspicuous at the court only by their absence. Their counsel, Messrs. S. D. Skinner, J. D. Timberlake, J. D. H. Wray, were present, but did not resist the petition. Petitioners were represented by Attorney T. K. Hackman, and Mr. West, of the Anti-Saloon League of Virginia, was also present.

ROB VETERANS.

Troy Holdbrook Gets Year for the Alleged Robbery.
Troy Holdbrook, charged with holding up and robbing R. J. Childress, a veteran from Buckingham county, was given a year in the Police Court yesterday morning. The veteran asked Holdbrook to show him where to get a room, and gave him a guide to the city. The clerk took the old man into an alley, where he rifled his pockets. Howard Divinity, an old Mississippi negro, whose face this city had been paid by some of the hearted veterans, was robbed of $32 Friday, and Sam Burton and Ida Bell were charged with the theft. It seems that Divinity was inveigled into the house on the pretext of getting a bed, and that while there Burton rifled his pockets. When the old negro discovered that he had been robbed he threatened himself with a knife and set up an alarm, which was answered by the police. Burton and the woman, against whom no positive evidence could be brought, were required to furnish security, which means for them six months in jail. Old Howard came from Vicksburg, Miss., to attend the reunion, having once fought under the colors of the Confederacy.

Divers Sinners Appear Before Justice John's Tribunal.

A. Skinner and Jake Cohen were given a year apiece for being suspicious characters. The exchequer of the city was swollen a little by contributions of $2.50 each from eighteen negroes, who had been caught shooting craps.

Men's Clothing

It cannot be told by a glance at the outside of it, any more than you can always tell the character of a man by looking at his face. It is easy enough to pretty up a pile of clothes into a good looking suit of clothes, and not spend very much time about it either. Why not know the truth about clothing you buy? Why not be sure that you are getting clothes tailored into shape. Instead of pressed in shape? Why not treat the buying of a suit of clothes just the same as you would any other business proposition, and know all about it before you spend your money?

It takes a little more time and a little more trouble than simply to accept a salesman's word. But we know it is worth while, and we want you to know it. The Julius Sytle's Sons clothing stands on its merits. The salesman is ready to show you the inside of coats, so you can see how carefully it's made.
